HIDDEN GEMS

of the District of Lunenburg

Indian Falls

A pleasant drive from anywhere in the region, Indian Falls offers a picnic area, on site privies, walking trail, rock beach and various look off points over the falls. Sit back, relax and listen as the waterfall roars and rumbles as it bounces off the rocks and flows down stream. 1585 Newburne Road, Newburne

Gaff Point

A unique, unspoiled 124-acre headland where the LaHave estuary meets Hartling Bay, Gaff Point offers a scenic 6.5 km coastal hike through diverse marine, forest, and wetland ecosystems. The trail features dramatic cliffs, tidal pools, and secluded sand and gravel beaches. Access the trail via Hirtle's Beach at 318 Hirtle Beach Road

Lunenburg County Winery

The winery sits on a drumlin surrounded by Acadian Forest and a multitude of lakes, in the community of Newburne. Known as Hackmatack Farm, a commercial blueberry farm, the winery has produced 100% Nova Scotia-grown, award-winning fruit wines. Visit, taste wine, pick berries, picnic and tour the winery. 813 Walburne Road, Newburne

Hirtle's Beach

A nature enthusiast's paradise. Here you will find more than 3km of white sand, rolling turf, fresh sea air, drumlin cliffs and breathtaking views. Categorized as a living beach because the beach moves and shifts at the whim of the ocean, Hirtle's Beach is ever changing. 318 Hirtle Beach Road, Kingsburg

Old Confidence Lodge

Recently restored to its original art deco style, this performance venue serves as a cultural hub for the charming fishing village of Riverport. Visit on any given weekend to see world-class musicians, musical theatre shows or take part in their dance parties, karaoke and so much more. Open year-round and everyone is welcome. For current shows and events please check out www.oldconfidence.ca

Ploughman's Lunch

Experience the delightful flavours at Ploughman's Lunch, a local bakery specializing in French pastries, organic sourdough breads, and bean-to-bar chocolate. Indulge in espresso, light lunches, and homemade soft serve ice cream. They also offer groceries and showcase local art. Located at 4645 Highway 331 West Dublin, Nova Scotia.

Maritime Painted Saltbox

Discover the vibrant work of Peter Blais and Tom Always at their unique barn gallery and studio in Petite Rivière. Showcasing dramatic acrylic paintings on canvas and one-of-a-kind folk art, this captivating space offers a unique artistic experience. Visit them at 265 Petite Rivière Road or call 902-693-1544 for more information.

10
Ovens Natural Park

A privately owned 190 acre pristine reserve of coastal forest. Some of the highlights of the park season are the unique sea caves, tours, gold panning on Cunard's beach, the miner's museum and nightly entertainment by the fire. 326 Ovens Rd, Riverport 902-766-4621.

Crescent Beach

A stunning 2 km, crescent-shaped stretch of white sand near the community of LaHave. Popular with visitors throughout the summer, it's known for its scenic sand dunes and ideal conditions for windsurfing. The sand bar connects some of the LaHave Islands to the mainland.

11
Blue Rocks

Just six minutes from the Town of Lunenburg is the tranquil fishing village Blue Rocks, often dubbed "Lunenburg's answer to Peggy's Cove." Renowned for its striking blue slate rocks meeting the Atlantic, this coastal gem continues its fishing traditions while captivating artists and photographers alike. The iconic fish shack sitting in the water stands as one of the most photographed scenes in the area.

LaHave Bakery

An old-style bakery located on the LaHave River waterfront. Reminiscent of an old general store, this authentic turn of the century shop is a big draw to the LaHave area. The bakery produces traditional breads made from locally grown, fresh milled grains offering a great selection of sweet and savoury treats. 3421 Highway 331, LaHave

12
Tancook Islands

Tancook Island is a unique community located approximately 6 miles off Chester, N.S. Here, vibrant artistry, a pristine natural environment and a history deeply rooted in fishing traditions intertwine. Leave your cares on the mainland and take a relaxing hour-long ferry ride to visit. Enjoy hiking, biking, or beach combing for sea glass and shells. A place where time moves differently.

www.exploremodl.ca

The District of Lunenburg, found on Nova Scotia's South Shore, is a place where you can experience the diversity of the Atlantic Ocean coastline or explore the many charming rural communities that dot the countryside.

Here, nature's canvas is particularly vibrant, from sprawling rock caves to white sand beaches; sheltered bays to pristine rivers, lakes and pastoral farmlands.

The District of Lunenburg, a proud history, a promising future, and a great place to visit!
